

OPEN POSITION

We are a law firm based in Geneva, advising and representing domestic and international clients mainly in banking and finance, corporate and tax matters.

Our Firm is looking for a

TAX LAWYER

You will both act as an advisor to our clients and manage litigation cases in tax law for companies and individuals.

Your profile matches the following criteria:

- Swiss legal training fully completed, including the Swiss bar exam
- excellent academic results
- prior professional experience in taxation of at least one year
- currently undergoing specialized training in taxation or motivated and available to start it
- perfect command of French
- very good command of English and a good knowledge of German
- very good command of basic IT tools (Word, Excel and PowerPoint)
- organized, rigorous and compliant with procedures
- flexible with a high stress tolerance
- team player

We offer interesting and diverse activities with attractive working conditions, in a pleasant and stimulating environment.

Starting date: as soon as possible

Type of contract: full-time position

We would be happy to receive your full application (cover letter, CV, copy of your diplomas and transcripts, work certificates, etc.), by e-mail to the following address:

info@aegis.ch

